INTRODUCTION

The Illinois Register is the official state document for publishing public notice of rulemaking activity by State governmental agencies. The table of contents is arranged categorically by rulemaking activity and alphabetically by agency within each category. Rulemaking activity consists of proposed or adopted new rules or amendments to or repealers of existing rules, including those by emergency or peremptory action.

The Register also contains Executive Orders and Proclamations issued by the Governor, notices of public information required by State statute, and activities (meeting agendas, Statements of Objection or Recommendation, etc.) of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules (JCAR), a legislative oversight committee which monitors the rulemaking activities of State agencies. In addition, the Register contains a Cumulative Index listing alphabetically by agency the Parts (sets of rules) on which rulemaking activity has occurred in the current Register volume and a Sections Affected Index listing, by Title of the Illinois Administrative Code, each Section (including supplementary material) of a Part on which rulemaking activity has occurred in the current volume. Both indices are action coded and are designed to aid the public in monitoring rules.

The Register will serve as the update to the Illinois Administrative Code, a compilation of the rules of State agencies. The most recent edition of the Code along with the Register comprise the most current accounting of the State agencies' rules.

The Illinois Register is the property of the State of Illinois, granted by the authority of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1991, ch. 127, pars. 1001 et seq., as amended).

The Secretary of State does not pass upon the legality of a limited liability company name by merely permitting organization, qualification, reservation or registration under a name. A final determination of limited liability company name unavailability shall not be based on deceptiveness, confusing similarity or other such considerations derived from unfair competition and trademark law.

Section 178.130 Standards - Conflicting Names

A limited liability company name shall be distinguishable upon the record of the Secretary of State, Department of Business Services, Limited Liability Company Division, from the limited liability company name or any assumed limited liability company name of any domestic or foreign limited liability company in existence and on record or from any name reserved or registered.

Section 178.140 Matters Not Considered

A surname shall be considered a "word". Where a limited liability company name consists of a surname without a given name or initials, it is treated in the same manner as other words for application of this subpart. A person may use his or her own name in a limited liability company name, but the limited liability company name must still be distinguishable from other limited liability company names.

- 15) Summary and Purpose of Amendment(s): This rulemaking amends Section 100.3700 of the Department's rules to establish a presumption that Subpart F income is passive income and is not includable in either the numerator or denominator of the sales factor in determining the amount of income of a taxpayer to be apportioned to the State of Illinois. The reference to "Subpart F" refers to Subpart F of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.A. 951-964). Subpart F income is presumed to be business income, and is included in the taxpayer's apportionable base income for pre-1988 years. With the amendment of Section 203(b)(2)(O) of the Illinois Income Tax Act by P.A. 84-1455, for post-1988 years Subpart F income is no longer included in income to be apportioned. However, the fact that Subpart F income has been removed from the tax base was not a per se determination that it should not be included in the computation of the apportionment formula provided at Section 304(a) of the Act, but rather creates a rebuttable presumption that Subpart F income should not be included. After careful study, the Department determined that there may be cases in which a taxpayer may wish to rebut this presumption and include the Subpart F income in the sales factor. Therefore, the Department has amended Section 100.3700 to establish a rebuttable presumption that Subpart F is not includable in either the numerator or denominator of the sales factor, thereby allowing taxpayers the right to contest this determination by identifying specific income producing activities and situating them to a specific state, if possible. The burden of proof is on the taxpayer to identify the income producing activities that generated the Subpart F income and to situs those activities within a particular state.

Section 100.1700 Special Rules (IITA Section 304)

a) In general:

IITA Section 304(e)(f) provides that if the allocation and apportionment provisions of IITA Section 304(a) through (d) do not fairly represent the extent of the person's business activity in this state, the person may petition for or the Director may require, in respect to all or any part of the person's business activity, if reasonable:

1) Separate accounting;

NOTICE OF ADOPTED AMENDMENT(S)

- 2) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;
- 3) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the person's business activity in this state; or
- 4) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the person's income. This subsection permits a departure from the required methods applicable under IITA Section 304(a) through (d), including combined apportionment (see Caterpillar Tractor Co. et al. v. Lenkos 84 Ill. 2d 102, 417 NE 2d 1343 (1981)), only where such methods do not accurately and fairly reflect business activity in Illinois. An alternative apportionment method under this subsection may not be invoked, either by the Director or by a taxpayer, merely because it reaches a different apportionment percentage than the regularly required formula. However, if the application of the statutory formula will lead to a grossly distorted result in a particular case, a fair and accurate alternative method is appropriate. (See Norfolk & Western Railway Co. v. State Tax Commission. 390 U.S. 317 88 S. Ct. 995 (1968)). The party (the Director or the taxpayer) seeking to utilize an alternative apportionment method has the burden of showing by clear and cogent evidence that the statutory formula would result in the taxation of extraterritorial values. (See Butler Bros. v. McColligan, 315 U.S. 501, 625, cf. 701 (1942).) The burden will be met only if the statutory formula is demonstrated to operate unreasonably and arbitrarily in attributing to Illinois a percentage of income which is out of all proportion to the business transacted in this State. (See Hans Rees' Sons, Inc. v. North Carolina ex rel Maxwell, 283 U.S. 123, 51 S. Ct. 385 (1931).) Finally, the party seeking to use an alternative apportionment formula must prove that such method fairly and accurately apportions income to Illinois based upon business activity in this state.

b) Property factor.

The following special rules are established in respect to the property factor of the apportionment formula:

- 1) If the subrents taken into account in determining the net annual rental rate under 86 Ill. Adm. Code 100.3550(c) produce a negative or clearly inaccurate value for any item of property, another method which will properly reflect the value of rented property may be required by the Director or requested by the person. In no case however shall such value be less than an amount which bears the same ratio to the annual rental rate paid by the person for such property as the fair market value of that portion of the property used by the person bears to the total fair market value of the rented property.

Example: A corporation rents a 10-story building at an annual rental rate of $1,000,000. The corporation occupies two stories and sublets eight stories for $1,000,000 a year. The net annual rental rate of the taxpayer must not be less than two-tenths of the corporation's annual rental rate for the entire year, or $200,000.

- 2) If property owned by others is used by the person at no charge or rented by the person for a nominal rate, the net annual rental rate for such property shall be determined on the basis of a reasonable market rental rate for such property.

c) Sales factor.

The following special rules are established in respect to the sales factor of the apportionment formula:

- 1) In the case of sales where neither the origin nor the destination of the sale is within this state, and the person is taxable in neither the state of origin nor the state of destination, the sale will be attributed to this state (and included in the numerator of the sales factor) if the person's activities in this state in connection with the sales are not protected by the provisions of P.L. 86-272, 15 U.S.C. 381-385. Although P.L. 86-272, by its terms covers only sales of tangible personal property, its rules regarding a state's power to impose a net income tax, for purposes of this special rule, will be applied whether the sale is of tangible or intangible property.

Example: A corporation's salesman operates out of an office in Illinois. He regularly calls on customers both within and without Illinois. Orders are approved by him and transmitted to the corporation's headquarters in State A. If the property sold by the salesman is shipped from a state in which the corporation is not taxable to a purchaser in a state in which the corporation is not taxable, the sale is attributable to Illinois.

- 2) Where substantial amounts of gross receipts arise from an incidental or occasional sale of a fixed asset used in the regular course of the person's trade or business, such gross receipts shall be excluded from the sales factor. For example, gross receipts from the sale of a factory or plant will be excluded.

- 3) Insubstantial amounts of gross receipts arising from incidental or occasional transactions or activities may be excluded from the sales factor unless such exclusion would materially affect the amount of income apportioned to this state. For example, the person ordinarily may include or exclude from the sales factor gross receipts from such transactions as the sale of office furniture, business automobiles, etc.

- 4) Where the income producing activity in respect to business income from intangible personal property can be readily identified, such income is included in the denominator of the sales factor and, if the income producing activity occurs in this state, in the numerator of the sales factor as well. For example, usually the income producing activity can be readily identified in respect to interest income received on deferred payments on sales of tangible property (86 Ill. Adm. Code 100.3650(a)(1)(A)) and income from the sale, licensing or other use of intangible personal property (86 Ill. Adm. Code 100.3650(c)(3)(A)).

- 5.) Where business income from intangible property cannot readily be attributed to any income producing activity of the person, such income cannot be assigned to the numerator of the sales factor for any state and shall be excluded from the denominator of the sales factor. The following provisions illustrate this concept:

A) Subpart F (26 U.S.C.A. 951-964) income is passive income generated by the mere holding of an intangible. There is a rebuttable presumption that Subpart F income is not includable in either the numerator or the denominator of the sales factor. If a taxpayer wishes to include Subpart F income in either the numerator or the denominator of the sales factor, the burden of proof is on the taxpayer to identify the income producing activities and to situate those activities within a particular state, or

B) For--example, where business income in the form of dividends received on stock, royalties received on patents or copyright, or interest received on bonds, debentures or government securities results from the mere holding of intangible personal property by the person, such dividends and interest shall be excluded from the denominator of the sales factor.

- 6.) In the case of sales of business intangibles (including, by means of example, without limitation, patents, copyrights, bonds, stocks and other securities), gross receipts shall be disregarded and only the net gain (loss) therefrom shall be included in the sales factor.

Example: In 1990, Corporation A, a calendar year taxpayer, sells stock with an adjusted basis of $98,000,000.00 for $100,000,000.00, realizing a federal net capital gain of $2,000,000.00. Only the net capital gain of $2,000,000.00 is reflected in A's sales factor for the taxable year ending December 31, 1990.

- d) Rule for inclusion of shares of partnership unitary business income and factors in combined unitary business income and factors of corporate partners.

When the activities of a corporate partner (or the activities of a unitary business group including the corporate partner) and the activities of a partnership, disregarding ownership requirements, constitute a unitary business relationship, then the partner's share of the partnership's income and factors shall be combined with the business income and factors of the partner or with the combined business income and factors of the unitary business group including the partner, as the case may be. The activities of a corporate partner and the activities of a partnership will constitute a unitary business relationship when such activities are integrated with, dependent upon, and contribute to each other. However, the rule stated herein will not apply to shares of income from partnerships whose business activity outside the United States is 80% or more of such partnership's total business activity, where the partnership has a different apportionment method than the corporate partner, or where the partnership is not in the same general line of business or a step in a vertically structured enterprise with the corporate partner. This rule is applicable to all taxable years for which the statute of limitations for filing claims for refund and for issuing notices of deficiency are open, except those tax years ending on or after the effective date (April 24, 1984) of Section 100.9900(e)(2) and ending prior to its repeal where the taxpayer relied upon that rule.
